Crazy Horse Memorial Cultural Programs Agreement and Understanding

The applicant agrees to hold harmless Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation-CHMF, its officers, directors, employees, partners, associates, affiliates, joint ventures, agents, consultants and representatives from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, actions, cause of action, costs and expenses that the Artist may sustain, incur, suffer or be put to at any time either before, during or after the expiration or termination of the Agreement, where the same or any of them are passed upon, arise out of or occur, directly or indirectly, by reason of any act or omission of the Artist or any agent, or employee of the artist pursuant to this agreement. Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation will not be held financially or otherwise liable for cancellation of programs, with reasonable notice, due to inclement weather or executive decisions made in the best interest of public safety, security, or satisfaction.

1. The Artist/Performer shall be responsible for obtaining any and all insurance necessary for the Artist/Performer, their artwork, materials, equipment, monies and any of their associates as deemed necessary by the Artist/Performer.
2. The Artist/Performer agrees that the Memorial has the right to establish and enforce all rules and regulations, as it deems proper for the benefit, safety, and security of all participants, attendees, staff and property. Should the Memorial cancel an event for any reason whatsoever, the Memorial is not responsible for any costs incurred by the artist.
3. Artist/Performer must be present and remain on-site throughout the Native American Artist Marketplace established session according to designated times and dates or the Cultural Programs Manager reserves the option to transfer their space/position to someone else.
4. Artist/Performer agrees to document and manage all sales transactions for their work, and shall be responsible for the collection, accounting and reporting of all sales taxes to the State of South Dakota.
5. Each individual Artist/Performer selling goods at Crazy Horse MUST have a current valid South Dakota Sales Tax License. If you do not have a permanent SD Sales Tax License, you may obtain a temporary Sellers Permit from the South Dakota State Sales Tax ID office for the duration of the program. A copy of the State Tax ID, must be submitted to the Cultural Programs Manager with the application. Failure to produce a current valid State Tax ID upon request, will result in the exclusion from Cultural Programs and the loss of any space or entrance fees paid to the Memorial.
6. Artists/Performers must submit to the Cultural Programs Manager, proof of Tribal enrollment/CIB in a federally recognized tribe, membership in a State recognized tribe, or certified as an Indian artisan, in accordance with the Indian Arts and Crafts Act.
7. Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation reserves the right to refuse artwork, exhibits, performances, presentations, or lectures that may have been found to use false information, may otherwise be deemed unsuitable or objectionable or are not in keeping with the philosophy and purpose of the Cultural Programs. This restriction also applies to excessive noise, persons, objects, conduct, printed material or any activity that might be found objectionable to the Memorial or not in keeping with the philosophy of the Memorial as a whole.
8. The right to refuse, also applies to individuals who have inappropriate online and social media posts reflecting a negative light on Crazy Horse Memorial; engaged in infringement of copyrighted images, written materials, or intellectual property owned by Crazy Horse Memorial; made false claims about, or who have unresolved personal or legal issues with Crazy Horse Memorial or other associated entities.
9. Artists/performers are prohibited from soliciting additional private business or conducting private business while exhibiting or performing at Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation and/or any Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation property, including (but is not limited to) unapproved film production, the promotion and selling of books, CDs, jewelry, artwork, etc. No tips should be solicited through verbal or visual/physical representation (i.e. tip jars or over-turned hat, etc.). Artists NOT accepted to any of the cultural programs will not be allowed to sell their works to the public, to employees, or to other artists at Crazy Horse Memorial.
10. The Artist/performer verifies all works on display, sold or demonstrated are created by the Artist. Works that are completely made or partially made by artists other than the submitting artist or factory made products will be disqualified.
11. Artist must comply with current state, national and international laws and regulations with regards to the use of endangered species material in their works. Use of such materials should be disclosed on the authenticity tag.
12. Possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages and other intoxicants or mood altering drugs are not allowed during work hours, at Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation, except in designated areas for authorized entertainment events. Artists agree to not serve, sell, give away or permit the consumption of any alcoholic beverages or intoxicants in or near assigned artist's area during scheduled work time. Violation of this agreement shall result in immediate removal of the artist. Smoking, smudging, or burning is only permitted in designated areas.
13. The Artist/performers are required to sign the Photo Media Release form authorizing Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation to use their images, likeness and voice recordings, in their entirety or any portion thereof, in connection with the publicizing and promoting of Crazy Horse Memorial and its events, programs and activities, in print, video, social media, or website.
14. The Artist/performer verifies that he/she understands her/his engagement with Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation is not as an employee and therefore, the Artist is not covered under Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation's Workers Compensation Insurance, and also is not eligible for employee benefits including but not limited to discounts on tickets, purchases, meals, or benefits such as van rides, housing, travel costs, etc., unless specified in their individual program contract.

By signing this form you are agreeing to all of the above items in this Agreement and Understanding, and the policies for each individual program to which you are applying. Signing this form also verifies that all information in the following sections is true and accurate.

Artist in Residency Fellowships

What: This residency provides six artists, musicians, and writers a one-month residency session each, to have studio space where they can work on proposed projects and goals for their art, share their experience with the public by demonstration, discussion, workshops, lecture, or other means, and market and sell their art, in the INDIAN MUSEUM OF NORTH AMERICA® from May through October, to some of the million or more visitors who visit each year. Artists submit a proposal describing the project they intend to work on during their Residency. Include information on the ideas or techniques you will explore and project timeline completion.

Who: We are looking for high quality Native artists, musicians, and writers who are committed to showcasing their arts and sharing their culture with our international audience. We encourage artists to bring not just items to sell, but also to showcase and to explain the process and reason for creation.

When: There are four (4) sessions for the summer season beginning on the first of each month and end on the last day of each month. The artist is required to be present at the museum a minimum of 120 hours for the month.

Session:	Start date:	End date:	Within the Hours:
Session 2	June 1	June 30	9:00am to 8:00pm
Session 3	July 1	July 31	9:00am to 8:00pm
Session 4	August 1	August 31	9:00am to 8:00pm
Session 5	September 1	September 30	9:00am to 8:00pm

Where: The artists will set up in the Artist in Residency studio at Crazy Horse Memorial Custer, SD. 10' x 10' studio/booth size – Available are: 8 ft. table, 2 folding chairs, basic electrical hook-up, and modular panels. Artist must provide a floor covering, table coverings reaching the floor, and display racks to fit the allotted space. Additional work tables, lights, and power tools may be furnished by the artist to meet their production needs, providing they fit in the studio space.

How Much: Residency would include a stipend of $3,000, plus lodging, and free studio space. In addition, artists will be allowed to sell their art during their residency, to thousands of visitors. Artists may submit a work for consideration of acceptance into the museum collection.

Requirements & Policies:

Artists in Residence Fellows, would be required to do a public lecture or educational workshop during their residency, maintain an open studio in the NAECC, where visitors can watch them work and talk about their culture. Artists would sell their works in the NAECC, with their primary objective to educate the public about their culture and art. Artists would also be eligible to sell their works at designated times in the Museum or Marketplace for additional visibility. Artists may be asked to meet the press, donors, or others at events, to talk about their art.

Cancellations: Accepted artists must notify the Cultural Programs Manager on or before April 16, 2018, if they are unable to participate. Late notification or failure to appear for residency, as agreed, will disqualify artist for 2 years.

Contact: Loni Manning, Cultural Programs Manager, loni.manning@crazyhorse.org, 605-673-4681, x286

Describe your type of art and pricing, as well as what you will be demonstrating:

Images: Artist is REQUIRED to submit three (3) images illustrating work that will be sold and demonstrated at the booth. These images must be sent with application by email, or mailed on a CD or USB, which will not be returned. All work must have been completed in the last (3) years and each item for sale must have a tag of authenticity with the artist's name, tribe, date it was completed and list of materials used.
