Living Treasures Indian Arts Cultural Exchange

Who: We are inviting professional Native American master fine artists*, from North America, who are members of a federally recognized tribe, a State recognized tribe, or are certified as an Indian artisan, in accordance with the Indian Arts and Crafts Act. We seek artists who are committed to sharing their culture with our international audience, and showcasing their fine artwork for sale to visitors through continuous daily workshops and demonstrations during the week-long event. * (Indigenous artists from outside United States, encouraged to apply.)

What: Crazy Horse Memorial's Living Treasures Indian Arts Cultural Exchange program strives to provide our guests and community with an opportunity to be exposed to high quality fine artwork; contribute to building a strong Native arts economy; celebrate the talents, diversity, and cultures of Native artists; and provide artists with a premier location to display and sell their art to an international audience.

Where: The Native American Educational and Cultural Center® (NAECC), at Crazy Horse Memorial, Custer, SD.

When: There are five (5) Living Treasures-Indian Arts Cultural Exchange events and an artist may apply for multiple events, however selected artists will only be awarded one month's session if selected. Artists should staff their table in the NAECC throughout the event(s), from 10:00am-6:00pm with a 30-minute lunch.

Event Dates	Your Proposed Medium of Artwork
Sun., May 30-Sat., June 5
Sun., July 4 -Sat., July 10
Sun., Aug 1-Sat., Aug 7
Sun., Sept 5-Sat., Sept 11
Sun., Oct 3-Sat., Oct 9

Stipend and Requirements: Accepted artists will receive a $2,500 stipend for workshop instruction and material costs; hotel accommodations with daily breakfast at a designated hotel; free lunch each day at the Laughing Water Restaurant; free studio/table space to teach their art; and an opportunity to *sell their own original work each day from their table, to daily international visitors. In exchange, artists are required to prepare materials for and present multiple hands-on-workshops and demonstrations in their chosen medium for interested visitors throughout the day, each of the seven days that they are here. Artists must prepare supplies for a minimum of 70 visitors during the week.

*-Artists are allowed/encouraged to sell their original artwork, but the focus of the program is the sharing of culture, and teaching art classes in their medium to visitors. All items for sale must have a tag of authenticity with artist's name, tribe, date completed, and list of materials used.

Describe your work and skills:

Images: Artist is required to submit three (3) images illustrating the type of work that will be exhibited and taught during their time. These images must be high-resolution jpegs sent with application by email
