

What is the Indian University of North America? The Indian University of North America of Crazy Horse Memorial offers distinctive academic programs in partnership with select institutions of higher learning. The programs are credit-bearing and are strategically designed and taught from an indigenous lens. The Indian University of North America is recognized by the Higher Learning Commission as an approved and accredited instructional location and degree site through its partnerships. The programs and the accompanying signature Student Success Coaching guide Native students in gaining access to college, and in persisting and completing college.

Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation is a 501c3 Public Charity of International scope that is a cultural, educational and humanitarian project dedicated to the Native American Indians of North America. Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation is located in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

The Indian University of North America of Crazy Horse Memorial is currently seeking qualified individuals for the position of Residential Assistant (two positions available) for the 7TH GEN. First-Year Program. Jobs duties will include assisting student residences in their adjustment to roommates and community living, attend and participate in summer programming activities, drive University vehicles for student internships and co-curricular activities, and enforce the rules and policies in The Indian University of North America and Crazy Horse Memorial's handbooks,

Applicants should possess a desire to work with a wide range of students from different tribal nations and states across the country. The ideal candidate must have a valid driving license and have the ability to pass a background check. On-site housing is mandatory and meals are provided by Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation®.

Please send a copy of your resume and cover letter to hr@crazyhorse.org or mail documents to:

Crazy Horse Memorial
C/O Human Resources
12151 Avenue of the Chiefs
Crazy Horse, SD 57730-8900