

Vice President Philanthropy Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation

Crazy Horse Memorial, located in the beautiful Black Hills of South Dakota, invites applications, nominations, and expressions of interest for the position of Vice President of Philanthropy.

Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation is a nonprofit, cultural and educational humanitarian project of international scope, established in 1948, with a mission to protect and preserve the culture, tradition, and living heritage of North American Indians. Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation sustains itself solely through private donations and admission with over one million visitors annually.

Crazy Horse Memorial seeks an experienced and successful fundraising professional with proven fundraising and leadership skills with the ability to build positive relationships and work collegially with many people and departments. The Vice President of Philanthropy reports to the President and Chief Operating Officer, and works closely with the executive management team comprised of the President/COO and CEOs Monique and Jadwiga Ziolkowski, daughters of sculptor Korczak Ziolkowski and his wife Ruth.

The Vice President of Philanthropy will supervise the development office staff and its functions. The successful candidate will demonstrate superior leadership and management skill and a record of success in donor cultivation, and closing major gifts. The successful candidate will join the board of directors, steering committee, volunteers, executive management team, stewardship officers, and Memorial staff in realizing the goals of the Memorial's current international campaign. The Vice President of Philanthropy will find established strategic plans and a compelling case for support for each component of the Memorial's mission. Initially, the Vice President of Philanthropy will directly steward a portfolio in the Pacific West and South West. This professional is required to be based onsite at the Memorial.

Qualified individuals should send a cover letter, resume, and three professional references to: Laurie Becvar, President/COO, Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation, 12151 Avenue of the Chiefs, Crazy Horse, SD 57730-8900 or email hr@crazyhorse.org. Nominations and inquiries are welcomed.
